MONDAY 23rd JUNE 6.00 for 6.30pm
BYRON SERVICES CLUB - 132 JOHNSON ST, BYRON BAY

THE FUTURE FOR AUSTRALIAN HOUSING

PRESENTED BY: MICHAEL WILLIAMSON

At this important gathering we will be looking at Australia's 'housing crisis', the underlying reasons for the situation the country finds itself in, the government's response, and the plans that are being laid out for our future.

With the government's own advisors warning that we face a critical housing shortage, and new laws recently brought in to entice major overseas institutional investors to enter the market with large-scale 'build- to-rent' schemes, we explore what is really going on, and the path ahead.

Could we be seeing a great reset for Australian housing?

Join the discussion and stay informed as we explore this important issue. Plus we will cover updates on other important issues we have discussed recently including recent developments from around the world.
